

Code of Conduct

It is a condition of entry into the Stadium that you abide by the Codes of Conduct for their own safety and the safety of others. It is a condition of entry that non participating young children be accompanied or adequately supervised by a parent or legal guardian at all times while on these premises. Failure to act according to the Codes of Conduct may result in your removal from the Stadium and / or exclusion.

Coaches Code of Conduct

Basketball Australia's Coaches Commission has spent over twelve months investigating the formalising of a set of Etiquette Guidelines. The result is a voluntary code, formulated to encourage a culture of professional standards within our Australian Coaching fraternity. This document which has been processed by basketball coaches for basketball coaches is subject to an annual review and is to be seen as a living document. Etiquette Guidelines are self-imposed and its adoption is a responsible step by any profession.

- You will abide by the policy and guidelines of the Bankstown Basketball Association.
- Be reasonable in your demands on young players' time, energy and enthusiasm.
- Teach your players that the rules of the game are mutual agreements, which no one should evade or break.
- Remember that children play for fun and enjoyment. Never ridicule children for making mistakes or losing a game.
- Develop team respect for the ability of opponents as well as for the judgement of officials and opposing coaches.
- Follow the advice of a physician when determining when an injured player is ready to recommence play.
- Be aware of the role of the coach as an educator. As well as imparting knowledge and skills, promote desirable personal and social behaviours.
- Seek to keep abreast of changes in the sport, ensure that the information used is up to date, appropriate to the needs of players and takes account of the principles of growth and development of children.
- Profanity is unacceptable.
- Dress standards should be appropriate and project a positive image.
- Avoid persistently questioning or challenging the rulings of the Referees.
- Direct, hostile or negative comments to opposition Coaches, Players or Referees is unacceptable.
- It is not acceptable for a Coach to make indirect comments towards referees that allocate blame or incompetence.
- You will abide by the policy and guidelines of the statutory requirements of the NSW legislation in relation to child protection and BNSW's sports rage guidelines
